Board of Trade Meeting.

An enthusiastic meeting of the Board of Trade was held at the Municipal Court Room, Wednesday evening, and was the continued meeting from the week before. The meeting was especially designed to talk over the question of bathing in the lake, and was discussed from all points of view. A. J. Stearns was asked to read the portion of the laws of Maine of 1885 which pertained to the Norway Water Co., which says that anyone polluting the waters of Lake Pennesseewassee or its tributaries shall be prosecuted, and the question was raised as to whether bathing above Freeman's Point and the Crockett cottage to the head of the lake would be in any way polluting the water. It was shown that bathing had been indulged in for many years past, but only on the sly, so to speak, and that the analysis of the water had always been pure. Instances were shown where much smaller bodies of water than Lake Pennesseewassee were use for bathing purposes and also used for a water supply without any trace of pollution. It was shown that if certain parts of the lake could be legitimately used for bathing that thousands of dollars would be brought into the town annually. One incident was spoken of where a woman was here with the hope of building a girls' camp and to spend $30,000 on the same, but when she learned that bathing was not available the matter was dropped, and this is only one of many instances. An expression of the Board of Trade showed that it was unanimously in favor of having bathing above a certain point in the lake. It was also claimed that there is more injurious substance washed into the lake from the road after each rain than would be if the inhabitants of Norway and South Paris should bathe there, every day in the summer. A resolution is to be presented to the Norway Water Co. expressing the opinion of the Board of Trade and a committee composed of A. J. Stearns, E. L. Brown and M. W. Sampson were appointed to confer with the directors of the Water Company.

The subject of roads was discussed at some length, and it was voted to appoint A. J. Stearns, L. M. Longley and Z. L. Merchant a committee to arrange an article for the town warrant. The idea being to fix Main street so that our town should not have the name it is acquiring or has acquired along the road question. This coming summer the trunk line will be continued here from Poland and Portland through Fair street and something should be done to connect the town with this thoroughfare. The means of raising the funds suggested was by a bond issue of small denominations, to be retired gradually for a long term of years so that the increase in taxes would be slight, and that the money now used on the road could be turned to this end.

It was voted to hold the annual banquet this year at the Beal Tavern and to invite Paul Sargent of Augusta, who is Engineer of the State Highway Commission, to be present, to address the gathering on the road question.

In turning out Mr. Jacobs ran into the crust at the side of the road which evidently interferred with the steering gear and he then ran into the ditch, which was four feet deep and the machine turned over on its side. The fact that the top was up, saved it from turning completely over. Cummings and Favor went to the assistance of the overturned car, and helped extricate the occupants, who were not injured in any way, and with the assistance of four boys, who happened along lifted the auto into the road. Just as Scores of Norway People Have.

Waiting doesn't pay.

If you neglect kidney backache,

Urinary troubles often follow.

Act in time by curing the kidneys.

Doan's Kidney Pills are especially for weakened kidneys.

Many people in this locality recommend them.

Here's one case:

John C. Ripley, the well-known blacksmith, Oxford St., South Paris, Me., says: "I was quite miserable for several months with an attack of kidney trouble. I had pains through the small of my back and my kidneys didn't act regularly. Doan's Kidney Pills relieved me in a remarkably short time."

Over two years later, Mr. Ripley said: "I have had little occasion to worry about my kidneys since I used Doan's Kidney Pills.

Proven Swamp-Root Aids Weak Kidneys

The symtoms of kidney and bladder troubles are often very distressing and leave the system in a run-down condition. The kidneys seem to suffer most, as almost every victim complains of lame back and urinary troubles which should not be neglected, as these danger signals often lead to dangerous kidney troubles.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root which soon heals and strengthens the kidneys is a splendid kidney, liver and bladder remedy, and, being an herbal compound, has a gentle healing effect on the kidneys, which is almost immediately noticed in most cases by those who use it.

A trial will convince anyone who may be in need of it. Better get a bottle from your nearest drug store, and start treatment at once.

However, if you wish first to test this great preparation send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle. When writing be sure and mention the Norway Weekly Oxford Co. Advertiser. 5-8

ALBANY.

Business is getting dull at Hunt's Corner, the snow is most all gone and it is feared that quite a lot of the pulp wood will have to lay in the woods next summer unless we have snow right away. There are a lot of whole families sick at the present time. Asa Keniston's family was about the first that came down with the grippe, they are all getting better. George Cummings and two daughters, Alta and Edith are all sick. Mrs. L. J. Andrews and daughter have both been sick. Susie Lewis has been quite sick. Charles Beckler and two of his daughters have been sick. Mrs. Carl Upton of North Albany is sick. Abel Andrews, Will Bird and Mrs. H. I. Bean and daughter have been sick. Mrs. A. G. Bean is having another sick spell. Mr. Joseph Cummings' family have all been sick except Wallace and part of them are quite sick at this writing.

Joseph Cummings was sick only a very few days. He passed away Monday, January 24th. The funeral was held in the church at the Corner, Wednesday, Rev. Mr. Curtis of Bethel, officiating. Mr. Cummings will not only be missed in the church, and as a good neighbor, but by everyone that knew him, for he always had a pleasant word for everybody and was a good citizen, and a granger for many years. He was an old soldier of the 10th Maine Regiment. Soon after the Civil war he and his wife moved into town. They raised a family of seven good children, all living at the present time except Cora, the eldest daughter, who married George Cummings and passed away about nine or ten years ago.

Mrs. Roscoe Emery dropped dead last Wednesday. She had been out to Bethel to work, nursing the sick and returned home the day before. She was a smart industrious lady and will be very much missed in her home and neighborhood, and also in the town of Bethel, where she has worked many times, assisting the sick and distressed. Her funeral was held at Songo school house, Saturday, attended by Rev. Mr. Curtis of Bethel. Mrs. Emery leaves a husband and three daughters to mourn their loss.

Leslie and Raymond Cummings took two jobs last fall of Arthur Bean and Charles Beckler to cut 200 cords of wood and bolts. They have got the jobs done and will be ready to strike another job toto cut another 100 cords, February 1st, for Charles Beckler.

Guy Johnson is driving team for Harry McNally. Harry McNally is cutting wood for A. G. Bean.

A number of the farmers in this town have come to the conclusion that they have got to buy hay before the first of April, and some have bought before this time. Hay is bringing a good price and so are potatoes.

Annie Cummings returned to her school duties Monday morning. Others who returned to the Academy were Ruth Elliott and Nina Briggs.

Bert Brown is on the sick list.

Ernest Paine is working for Fred Littlefield and drives back and forth so as to board at home.

There will be a dance at the Albany townhouse next Saturday night.

Vera Butters has gone to Stoneham to spend the rest of the winter with her grandfather, and aunt, Cora Butters.

Asa Keniston has been very poorly the past month.

Albany Line and Vicinity.

Mrs. Charles Marston, who went to Lovell last week in company with her husband, to the funeral of his sister, Mrs. Stephen Kimball, stopped over to visit her daughter, Mrs. Sidney Hatch. She will return Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lord are looking for cows, they seem to be scarce in this vicinity.

Mrs. Anna Fiske visited her mother at South Waterford the 29th. She met with her sisters there.

Mr. E. K. Shedd went to North Bridgton, Thursday after the remainder of their goods. While there Mrs. Shedd visited her sisters, Mrs. G. S. Marr, Mrs. O. V. Edwards and Mrs. Frank Chadbourne.

Henry Durgin has taken an amount of timber to cut for E. K. Shedd on the Joseph Shedd place. Mr. Durgin is buying a large amount of timber this year.

It seems good to know that one old and valued neighbor, M. M. Sawin is able to be about again. He walked to the pond one day last week we understand, about a mile from home.

Mrs. Rebecca Fiske celebrated her 65th birthday the 24th of January. She is one of the most capable women in town and the best of neighbors to all who come in her range.

Allen Garrett is building a little cottage near Sam Lebroke's. He is to run Henry Durgin's engine this spring.

Roy Lord is hauling timber for Henry Durgin's mill from his place. He has quite an amount cut and has Mr. Wilberger of Stoneham cutting for him. Mrs. Wilberger boards there while her husband is at work.

Austin Hutchinson is seen every day, teaming on the road, rain or shine, hauling birch from his place here to North Waterford.

Fred Scribner's baby is very ill. A physician was called Monday.

Mrs. Lydia Shedd sent her daughter, Mrs. R. B. Penfold of Portland, a fine piano for a birthday present the 27th.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred McAllister of North Waterford was at E. K. Shedd's, Saturday.

Walter Lord and wife visited Mr. Lord's grandmother, Mrs. Lucy Allen, at Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bickford's, Sunday. Mrs. Allen has been confined to her bed for over four years, and is a great sufferer. She will be 88 years old in March.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured
by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflamation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.
We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Mrs. Varney, acting as chairman of the meeting, spoke of the object of this organization "That parents and teacher may co-operate intelligently in the education of the child."

The articles of a proposed constitution and by-laws were read, voted upon and adopted.

GOV. B. M. FERNALD.

Like nearly all the greatest and most trusted public men of our country, of which Daniel Webster, Henry Clay, Andrew Jackson and Abraham Lincoln are conspicuous examples, Hon. Bert M. Fernald was born on a farm. Here at West Poland, anciently a part of Bakerstown, which was afterwards changed to Poland and was supposed to have received this name from the Indian chief Poland, slain by Stephen Manchester in the attack of the savages on the Windham blockhouse in 1756 that ended all Indian outrages in that quarter, the subject of this sketch was born, April 3, 1858.

It is a splendid farm which has been in the Fernald family for nearly 125 years, and it is to be noted that the character of the soil is somehow indicative of the characteristics of the people who live upon and obtain a subsistence from it. Mr. Fernald has always made the place of his birth his home.

He was educated in the public schools of his town and fitted for college at Hebron Academy, and like the late Governor John D. Long and many others, is proud of being a son of this famous institution. His father having died, the care of a widowed mother falling to his lot, prevented his taking a university course, and at seventeen he settled down to the hard work required on the farm, and for ten years taught school, winters, in connection with this work, with much success, in his own and adjoining towns.

This period of ten years, improving his real estate, storing his mind with useful and practical knowledge, learning to govern others, and acquiring habits of thrift, independence and application to the accomplishment of useful purposes, did more for the future Governor than any courses at high institutions could ever produce. Trained in the school of experience, he knows the wants of the farmers, and sympathizes with their desires and necessities. They trust him, for they know that their interests are his and that he will ever be true to them, and more than that, the just regard of the rights of others has and will be the guiding purpose of his life. For 30 years he has been an active member of the grange, which today is the most powerful and beneficial organization in the State. (The writer of this article is not a member of it, but this is the sincere and unsolicited tribute he pays it).

Mr. Fernald married Miss Annie Keene of Poland. They have two children, James H. Fernald, now in business with his father, and Nellie, who married Mr. Norris P. Eveleth of Kennebunk. Governor Fernald is manager of the Fernald, Keene & True Co., one of the large corn packing companies of the State, which does business with the farmers in more than 50 towns. For several years he was President of the National Canners' Association, but retired from it in 1914.

Mr. Fernald has always been a stanch believer in the principles of the party founded by Abraham Lincoln, Charles Sumner, Horace Greeley and Hannibal Hamlin, and has ever sympathized with the people as against great combinations of whatever kind. He thoroughly believes in preserving for the people the great natural resources and waterpowers of the State.

In 1896 he was elected as a Representative to the Legislature. Two years after, he was chosen State Senator, and was re-elected. He served on important committees with such distinction that he was regarded as in line for higher honors, and in 1908 was chosen Governor. His administration is regarded today as wise, economical and praiseworthy, and among the best the State has had.

Governor Fernald enjoys the warm friendship of his neighbors and townsmen, and the respect and confidence in a marked degree of all who personally know him. He is a forceful and convincing speaker, an able and ready debater, and his services are in great demand, particularly in Oxford County, in every campaign.

He is a candidate this year for United States Senator from Maine. If nominated, his supporters have no doubt of his election, in which event he will serve in Congress, with great credit to himself and honor to the State.

She Will Recover

So her doctor said. Her friends and neighbors felt sure of it too. They have used Peruna themselves and know of its merits. That old cough that had worried her for years and years, for which she had taken all sorts of cough medicines, has disappeared. Peruna is doing the work. She will recover. Indeed, she has recovered.

Her name is Mrs. William Hohmann, 2764 Lincoln Ave., Chicago, Ills. She had suffered with catarrh of the bronchial tubes and had a terrible cough ever since a child. As she got older she grew worse. She coughed both winter and summer. Had to sit up at night. Could not sleep. "But all that has left me now. Peruna has cured me."

There are others, and there is a reason.

A. E. LERCHE

"If you ever get the blues," he said, "it is well to know the simplest and best way to get rid of them. Crankiness, nervousness and general upset condition preceding the blues usually are due to the relentless grip of constipation on the nervous system. The simplest way to meet this condition is to have a box of Rexall Orderlies in your pocket and the best way is to take one when you feel the attack coming on. It is the finest laxative for men, women and children I know of, and is a regular antidote for the blues—the best ever."

Among many other things its says, Brooklyn is principally noted for being across the East River from New York and for possessing the greatest preacher and the most marvelous bridge in the world. The cars crossing the bridge resemble those of the Bridgton railroad. The moon was full, large, round and shining brilliant,—like the back of Sinclair Mason's head. "As I said before I'm here, but for how long, man knoweth not. Like the present weather, I'm liable to sudden changes, no more Boston letters. Rejoice therefore while you may."——Seitz is yet with them and draws a bigger salery for each working hour of the day then he received for a week's labor when he penned these lines.

Frank, the Candy Kid.

The Nonpareil of Council Bluffs has this story of a Norway boy:

It all happened way back in —well a good many years ago, but Frank True, the urbane city treasurer, still remembers all about the details, and he shows with a great deal of pardonable pride the particular piece of money which was given him for the very first money he ever earned.

It's not particularly valuable, at least to anybody but Mr. True, but he keeps this old "shinplaster" locked up in the most inaccessible corner of the city vault where theives may not break in and steal. He has had this particular piece of paper, issued by the government during and immediately after the Civil war under the general name of "fractional currency," for almost a half century.

"I remember it just as though it was but yesterday," said Mr. True in real reminiscent style, in talking of the incident with a Nonpareil man the other day. "That particular piece of paper that is good for five cents was the very first bit of money I ever earned in my life.

"I was perhaps 9 years old at the time. My older brother had been accustomed to sell molasses candy about the town where we lived (Norway, Me.) and on this particular occasion I broke into the game. I went down town to the store and bought a quart of molasses, paying fifteen cents for it and my mother made it up into molasses candy for me. I remember it made seventy-five sticks and I sold these for a penny apiece, so that after paying for my molasses I had a profit of sixty cents.

"On this occasion one of the first places I went was to a tannery. My brother had been selling candy there before, and there was no trouble in disposing of my stock in trade, for they knew the quality of it. When I went in a man named John Devine was there who knew me, and knew that I was just starting out. He gave me this bit of paper and took five sticks of my candy. It was the first money I received on my first business venture.

"I remember that even in those days I was not accustomed to seeing the paper money for the small sums and I regarded this particular piece of paper rather doubtfully. He saw me looking at it, and at once said:

"'It's all right, Frankie; it's good, all right.'

"I took his word for it, and carried it away with me, and I have always kept it since. This is the particular piece of paper money, good for just five cents, that was given me way back there in my boyhood.

"I have always advocated," continued Mr. True in a ruminating mood, "that boys and men should be thrifty and save part of their money. I believe it is a very good thing for them. But I doubt if there are very many people who can produce the actual piece of money that was the first they ever earned."

Prince Albert fits your taste!

Meets the fondest wishes of any man who likes to smoke because it has the right flavor and aroma and coolness. It's the most cheerful tobacco you ever did pack in a jimmy pipe or roll into a cigarette. And it's so good you just feel you never can get enough. The patented process fixes that—and cuts out bite and parch!

Copyright 1916 by R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co.

Listen: It's easy to change the shape and color of unsalable brands to imitate the Prince Albert tidy red tin, but it is impossible to imitate the flavor of Prince Albert tobacco! The patented process protects that!

When you fire up your first smoke you'll decide that you never did taste tobacco that hits your fancy like the national joy smoke

For it exceeds in goodness and satisfaction the kindest word we ever printed about it!

Men, we tell you this tobacco will be a revelation to you. So, take this information at 100%, get out the old jimmy pipe from its hiding place or locate the makin's papers—and fall-to!

Your wishes will be gratified at the nearest store that sells tobacco, for Prince Albert is in universal demand. It can be bought all over the states and all over the world! Toppy red bags, 5c; tidy red tins, 10c; handsome pound and half-pound tin humidors—and—that fine pound crystal-glass humidor with sponge-moistener top that keeps the tobacco in such excellent trim.

BANISH HEATING TROUBLES

Save the trouble of tending dampers. Save one-third of your coal bills. Eliminate fire dangers and have your house heated just as you want it, all the time, by attaching a Jewell or Honeywell Heat Controller to your heating plant.

You simply set an indicating arrow at the degree of heat that you wish and the Controller opens and closes the drafts automatically. It keeps the temperature within one degree of the standard you have set.

The Controller is also made with a Time Clock Attachment, which greatly increases its efficiency. If you want the house cooler at night, you can set the indicator at sixty-five, sixty, or whatever you wish, and the temperature stays right where you set the indicator—even if the weather should turn much colder during the night.

If you dislike to get up and dress in cold rooms, you can set another indicator to the day temperature and set the alarm dial of the clock an hour earlier than your time for rising. When you get up, you find the whole house warm and comfortable.

In like manner, if you wish to leave the house alone for several hours during the day, a lower temperature may be maintained, and, by the use of the clock attachment, you will find the house warm and comfortable when you return.

This means more comfort and a saving of fuel. The Controller will work on any heating apparatus, hot water, steam, vapor or hot air. We have installed many in this vicinity with best results. Prices of different styles vary from $10.00 to $30.00. Ask us for booklets with description and prices.

Enrich the Soil

Year by year the natural fertility of the soil is taken away by growing crops. This natural fertility can only be restored by feeding nature's plant food made of animal substances.

Essex Fertilizers give this plant food in available forms—BONE, BLOOD and MEAT and high-grade chemicals. They restore the natural fertility to the soil and produce abundant yields.

BONE, BLOOD and MEAT Fertilizers act quickly. They are fine and run freely through fertilizer drills or planters.

Due to the lack of potash this year, reliable manufacturers have either been compelled to charge exorbitant prices for potash or to make fertilizers without it. Essex High-Grade Fertilizers have always grown profitable crops. We made extensive experiments without potash and now offer you Essex Animal Fertilizers that will permanently enrich your soil.

Ask your local dealer about them or write the

RHEUMATISM ARRESTED

Many people suffer the tortures of lame muscles and stiffened joints because of impurities in the blood, and each succeeding attack seems more acute until rheumatism has invaded the whole system.

To arrest rheumatism it is quite as important to improve your general health as to purify your blood, and the cod liver oil in Scott's Emulsion is nature's great blood-maker, while its medicinal nourishment strengthens the organs to expel the impurities and upbuild your strength.

Scott's Emulsion is helping thousands every day who could not find other relief.

Refuse the alcoholic substitutes.

KIDNEY DISORDERS QUICKLY RELIEVED

Frank Kimball, the popular druggist, has established a new record in the sale of medicine. He says he don't believe any medicine ought to be paid for unless it does the user some good and he has adopted the plan of selling Solvax, the standard kidney remedy, under a positive guarantee of quick relief from all kidney or bladder misery, or money back without a question. This speaks eloquently for the virtues of the remedy that already has created such a widespread demand in Norway. Solvax is not just merely a kidney treatment, it is a medicine that puts the entire, pain-racked body into normal condition and gives vigorous health after the many painful disorders caused directly or indirectly by sick kidneys. A change for the better will be seen after the first few doses of Solvax and its continuel use will soon tone up the entire system of improperly working organs and give you the desire to live and enjoy life to its fullest.

Solvax is sold under a positive guarantee to refund the money if it does not cure. Ask Frank Kimball about it. 5-6

NOTICE OF FORECLOSURE.

Whereas, Harry E. Walker, then of Fryeburg in the County of Oxford and State of Maine, did, on the twenty-third day of July, A. D. 1902, by his mortgage deed of that date, duly executed and recorded in Oxford Western District Registry of Deeds, in Book 91, Page 29, convey in mortgage to me, Edwin S. Hutchins, of the same Fryeburg, the following described real estate, situated in said Fryeburg, viz. "My homestead and homestead buildings in said Fryeburg, bounded northeasterly by the road leading from Fryeburg Center to West Fryeburg, northwesterly by land of or occupied by Arthur Locklin, southwesterly by land of Edwin L. Walker, and on the other side by Saco River and by land of Francis W. Day, containing sixty-five acres more or less. Also my wood lot near Birch Hill in said Fryeburg, bounded westerly by land of George H. Walker and by a small brook, northerly by land of Henry Andrews and Daniel D. Carlton, known as the 'Dana lot', easterly by the so called 'Joseph Walker lot', now owned by Frank L. Eastman, and southerly by land of or formerly of the late Caleb Hardy and the late Richard Colby, containing about thirty acres. Also the north end of a fifth division lot in said Fryeburg, and at Fryeburg Center, being the same lot described in deed of William Gamage to Caleb S. Gamage, dated March 5th, 1841, recorded in Oxford Western District Registry of Deeds in Book 21, Page 90, to which reference may be had, as well as to deed of Caleb S. Gamage to William Walker, recorded in said Registry in Book 47, Page 137, for further description of said lot." And whereas the condition of said mortgage has been broken;

Now, therefore, I claim foreclosure of the same, in accordance with the statute in such cases made and provided.

Dated at Fryeburg, January 20, 1916.

UPTON.

House Burned.

On Friday afternoon the house so long occupied by the late Joseph Brooks was burned to the ground. The farm was owned by Verney Davis of Errol, who had a stock of cattle on the place.

Sam Enman and family lived on the place. Mr. Enman lost nearly all of his household goods, the family saving only what clothes they had on.

His son and family lived in one part of the house and they too lost nearly everything.

In spite of a high wind the volunteers succeeded in saving the stable, which was connected with the ell.

WEST FRYEBURG.

The autos have resumed their daily use, notwithstanding the icy condition of the roads, which is a menace to pedestrians, but they seem to glide along without much trouble.

Mrs. Emma Walker is gaining, but her broken limb is not quite ready for her to do her housework. Emily Flint of East Conway is there to do the work, and they consider themselves very fortunate in securing her services.

E. L. Walker is somewhat improved in health.

Mrs. Esther Charles is stopping a short while with her sister, Mrs. Abbie Waterhouse, at E. L. Walker's.

One day last week, three different doctors were in attendance on different people in the short distance of 1 1-4 miles, in this locality.

Louise, daughter of Grey and Ella Eastman, observed her fifth birthday, Jan. 30. She made the "birthday cake" herself, which was decidedly very nice. She is fond of assisting her mother in her culinary duties and probably inherits some of the talent for cooking which her Grandma Eastman has proved for so many years in Hotel Eastman at North Conway.

We are sorry to lose Mr. and Mrs. Charles Andrews from this section, as they are to remove to the village, Feb. 1, having exchanged his property here with his father, Henry Andrews, who owned a house at the village. Charles is to enter the automobile business.

LOVELL.

The snow is almost all gone and loggers have been obliged to leave the woods in a number of cases.

C. K. Chapman is gaining, and his many friends hope to see him out again, soon.

Walter Benson of the Harbor has been in town, sawing wood.

Calvin Briggs lost part of his thumb and part of two fingers on a saw in the mill at Black Mountain, Sweden. He is doing well, but it is very painful.

C. S. Heald, James Jackson and Charles Forest of North Fryeburg attended Odd Fellows' meeting, at No. 4, Saturday evening.

N. B. Dresser is getting along well at the Maine General Hospital at Portland. Mr. Dresser is a Lovell boy. He moved to South Paris, last spring. He is a member of Lake Kezar Encampment and Kezar Valley Lodge, I. O. O. F., of this town; also Delta Lodge, F. and A. M.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Farrington are quite ill with grippe. Most everyone has been ill or is ill in this town, with bad colds and grippe.

Those people that use false teeth want to be very careful. A man was getting over a fence the other day, the top pole broke, and jarred out his teeth, and they bit him on his ankle.

Saturday evening, Jan. 29, Kezar Valley Lodge, I. O. O. F., conferred the first degree on two candidates. There were a large number present. After the work a short entertainment, consisting of music, singing by the male quartet, solos, etc. Next Saturday evening will be a red letter night in Oddfellowship. An oyster supper will be served at six o'clock. The second degree will be conferred upon two candidates. Music will be furnished by Kezar Valley Orchestra of seven pieces. After the work an entertainment will be given by the brothers. Fryeburg Lodge of Fryeburg, Crescent Lodge of North Lovell, have been invited to attend. Any Brother stopping in town on that date will be welcome.

That nervousness, fretting and restlessness is no doubt caused by worms or constipation. Instead of whipping or scolding, give your child a treatment of Kickapoo Worm Killer. RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

On the Death of Sister Margaret Cummings

Whereas our allwise Heavenly Father has once more seen fit to enter our ranks and sever our Fraternal ties, and has taken unto Himself one of our most esteemed members, Sister Margaret Cummings, be it therefore,

Resolved, that in the death of Sister Cummings, Hebron Grange has met with a great and irreparable loss. Again we as a body have been called upon to mourn, again we as individuals have paused in our worldly activities to meet the reaper, death. Tenderly he has called home a beloved sister, one whose long Christian life has been a grand fulfillment of the profession she made in early youth to her Maker. Be it further,

Resolved, that we let the example of this sweet Christian life which has so lately been among us but has now gone to the great Beyond, be to us a strong incentive toward making our lives the stronger and purer. That we realize more fully what it means to the world to live thus nobly a Christian life like hers. And we shall hold in sacred memory her many kind acts and loving thoughtfulness of others, be it therefore,

Resolved, that we tender our deepest sympathy to the bereaved families, that a copy of these Resolutions be sent to each of the children of the deceased Sister, also spread upon our records and sent to the Norway Advertiser.

JOSEPH ANDREWS' LETTER.

In my last letter to the Advertiser I quoted from a letter from Henry Stearns and referred to him and Ren Stearns as the last survivors of the famous 17 Stearns boys who enlisted from Lovell Center and fought for their country during the Civil war. A few weeks ago I wrote to Henry again giving him what items of news I could think of as gathered from the columns of the Advertiser and also included two copies of the Advertiser, and I was looking forward with pleasure to the reciept of one of his long and interesting letters. But instead I received the following letter from his son, Edward, now living in Chicago, which I will quote in full thinking it will be of interest to those of his friends still living in Lovell, Fryeburg, Stoneham, Norway and other nearby towns.
"717 Railroad Exch., Chicago, Jan. 22, 1916.

My dear Mr. Andrews: I have your letter of December 28 last to father. He had a stroke in November last and I and my wife went out to California to take care of him. The doctors did not hold out any hope of his recovery for about two weeks after he was stricken. But he surprised all the doctors and began to improve. The paralysis left him and he was able to get up and walk about some, but his speech was pretty badly affected. I came back to Chicago leaving my wife there to care for him until he should be able to stand the trip back to Chicago. She had expected to start back December 21, and had everything arranged for, when he had another shock the day they expected to start and lived but a few hours. I went on again and attended the services and have just returned. It has been a great shock to me, for I thought he was good for ten or fifteen years yet. He was not quite seventy-seven. Yours truly, Edward H. Stearns.

A few years ago I wrote the Advertiser of my visit to the I. O. O. F. cemetery adjoining Golden Gate Park, San Francisco, where in the Heald and Woodberry plots rested side by side the forms of five of my school companions. Since then two more have been added to the list, and the plot is not yet filled. Today in this sunkissed spot overlooking San Francisco Bay, where the grass is ever green and bright flowers bloom the whole year round, rest seven of my school companions, who fifty years ago as teacher and scholars helped to fill the seats of the old white school house still standing at Lovell Center, to over flowing with bright eyed studious boys and girls. Although death has taken a liberal toll from amongst my school companions I can still locate over 40 still living and many of these I hope to meet once more before 1916 is ended.

TREATMENT OF PNEUMONIA.

The first symptoms of pneumonia are not usually different from those of a severe cold. There is likely to be a chill, followed by a slight rise of temperature, loss of appetite, headache, and a cough that raises some mucous expectoration. That is the case when the pneumonia is "primary." In the "secondary" cases, when the pneumonia accompanies some other serious illness, all the symptoms may be masked by those of the original disease, so that the pneumonia is established before anyone has even suspected the fact.

In those cases the patient is already under the care of a doctor and nurse, and the pneumonia must be treated as a complication of the original disease. But when a person who has been hitherto been well comes down with pneumonia, the question of treatment becomes very important. Pneumonia is a disease for which there is no specific treatment,—once contracted, it must run its course,—yet there are few illnesses in which the sort of care that a patient receives so greatly influences the result of the attack.

When it is too late for prevention and the infection is established, a good physician must be put in charge of the case. He will attend to each symptom as it arises, and his orders must be scrupulously obeyed. The largest, best-ventilated and sunniest room in the house should be taken for the sick room, no matter who is disturbed thereby, fresh air should circulate through it day and night, although a cold wind must not blow directly upon the patient. Some account should be taken of the sufferer's condition from hour to hour, and the room should be kept a little cooler when his temperature is high.

It was once thought that, because pneumonia so often follows a cold, it was best to keep the patient smothered in blankets in a warm room, but we have learned better. If two rooms can be used, it is a good plan to carry the sick person from one to the other, and take that opportunity to ventilate the vacant room thoroughly. Indeed, pneumonia is most successfully treated in the open air, as far as that is possible.

A light application of mustard to the chest, covered by an oil-silk jacket, is helpful. Do not give the patient ice-water, but let him have all the cool, pure water he will drink.

Stimulants and drugs to relieve the pain must be prescribed only by the physician. The nurse in charge should stay constantly with the patient.

QUEER HABITS, DUMB ANIMALS.

A fly on a window pane will crawl to the top, fly back to the bottom and crawl up again. This order is seldom reversed, Why, no one knows. It is on record that a fly crawled up a window pane thirty-two times, returning each time a-wing.

Hens scratch for food with the sun behind them, the reason being that the rays reflect on the minute particles. A blind hen will pick grain and not miss a kernel.

Cats seldom lie with their feet to the fire. Usually they lie on the left side. Dogs lie with their forepaws to the fire.

A mouse will ignore a food supply sufficient for a meal and run great risks to nibble at a wholesale supply. It will hide at the source of food supply and not depart therefrom until actually disturbed. It isn't true that a mouse runs to its hole at the first alarm.

Find a harmless little snake the length of a lead pencil and provide a box for it in the house, visit it daily, and at the end of three months it will crawl to you for food.

Goldfish generally go around a globe to the right. They can be taught to take a fly out of the hand in six weeks' time. The presence of other fish in the globe is generally ignored by goldfish. Drop a chip on the surface of the water and it will frighten a fish.

Sheep spend more time grazing than do cattle and horses. Sheep will eat for twelve hours out of twenty-four.

Many a fool deceives the public into thinking he is a wise man.

STATE PATROL.

A plan to have the principal trunk highways of every town in the State patrolled, is now being worked out by the Maine State Highway Commission, and if the project can be carried into effect, it will mean that an army of 500 patrolmen will spend their entire time on Maine's principal highways from early spring until late in the fall keeping them in the best possible condition. Where state highways run through a town, the patrolmen will devote their time to keeping these in shape, but where there are no state highways, the principal artery of traffic will be designated to receive the patrolling.

The plan, if successfully carried out, will mean the rehabilitation of hundreds of miles of highways now rapidly going to pieces from lack of maintenance. It will also mean that other hundreds of miles of unimproved highway will have the loose rocks raked from their surface, their gutters kept clean and the little holes which are constantly developing on the surface, filled up. It will mean that our new state highways will be kept in perfect condition, that our old state aid roads will be so revived that they can be classed as excellent, and our poor main roads so improved that in many cases they may be rated, the result of patrol system, as good.

The Maine State Highway Department is now endeavoring to inaugurate this system, and it is no easy task. One of the great difficulties will be to get a sufficient number of reliable patrolmen and another will be to get the towns sufficiently interested to take hold of it. It is a safe assertion that this plan, the coming summer, will not work out anywhere near as well as it will two or three years hence. This is because the patrolmen will be inexperienced this year, but they will improve with every succeeding year. Undoubtedly a number of towns will refuse to take action this year, but the following year when they have seen the success of the plan in the towns that do adopt it, they will be anxious to try it themselves.

The Highway Department is sending out six documents in connection with the establishment of the system. One of these is a copy of the law regarding systematic maintenance of the principal thoroughfares in each municipality in the state. The second is a blank form which is to be filled in and returned to the Commission suggesting the roads which should be patrolled. The third is another blank to be filled in and returned, recommending suitable patrolmen. In this connection the questions asked include, besides name, address, etc., age, weight, height, condition of health, habits, nationality, Is he an American citizen? What experience has he had in road work? What is his regular occupation? and Where does he live with respect to the roads to be patrolled?

The fourth blank calls for a statement of mileage and road appropriations in each town, covering a period of the past five years. Each letter contains a blueprint of the town of which the information is being requested, and the Commission requests that this blueprint be marked with a red pencil to designate the main thoroughfares suggested for patrol in the town. The Commission is of the opinion that the mileage to be patrolled should not exceed 12 miles and that it should be continuous, or at least connected. It is also requested that each patrolman furnish a horse, weighing at least 1200 pounds, a four wheeled work wagon, a road drag built from designs and specifications furnished by the State Highway Commission; all necessary small tools, and devote his entire hours on the road; not from the time of leaving home in the morning until returning at night, but nine hours of actual work on the road. A letter is enclosed explaining all the details of the plan.

The law under which the State Highway Commission proposes to inaugurate the patrol system is the following; Chapter 272, Public Laws of 1915; An Act to Provide for the Systematic Maintenance of the Principal Thoroughfare in Each Municipality in the State.

Be it enacted by the people of the State of Maine as follows;

Section 1. Every town in which the State Highway Commission, acting under the provisions of Section 9 or Section 18 of Chapter 130 of the Public Laws of 1913 supervises the maintenance of any state or state aid highway, is hereby directed to co-operate with the said State Highway Commission in the employment of a regular road patrolman to perform maintenance work in addition to that upon the state highway or state aid highway upon such mileage of road as shall be mutually agreed upon by the municipal officers of the town and the State Highway Commission.

Section 2. For each mile of road so maintained it shall be lawful for the municipal officers of such towns as come within the provisions of Section 1 of this act, and for the purposes therein set forth, and they are hereby directed to annually pay, prior to Sept. 1 of the year in which the work is done, from the town's appropriations for roads and bridges, into the State Treasury, a sum which shall equal the average amount per mile of road raised by the town for the support of highways. This amount shall not be less than $30 per mile nor more than $60 per mile. It shall be added to such maintenance fund as may be provided under Section 9 or 18 of Chapter 130 of the Public Laws of 1913 and its expenditure shall be directed and administered by the State Highway Commission. In computing the average amount per mile of road raised by the town, the mileage of road heretofore improved shall be deducted from the total mileage of roads in the town. If any town shall fail to pay its share as above provided the amounts payable by such town to the State under this act shall be certified by the Commission to the State Auditor, who, if he finds the amount correct, shall certify it to the Treasurer of State and unless sooner paid, it shall be collected and paid in the same manner as any State tax against such towns or county with interest at six per centum per annum from the date of the Auditor's certification to the Treasurer of State.

Section 3. The State Highway Commission shall make return each year to the municipal officers of each town coming within the provisions of this act of the maintenance work performed in such town under the provisions hereof.

Last year one town of its own accord, Gray, tried out the patrol system, the only one in the state, and it was a tremendous success.

THE HOME BOOSTER.

If you like the old town best,
Tell 'em so!
If you'd have her lead the rest,
Help her grow!
When there's anything to do
Let the fellows count on you;
You'll feel bully when it's through
Don't you know.

If you want to make a hit,
Get a name!
If the other fellow's it,
Who's to blame?
Spend your money in the town,
Where you pull the shekels down;
Give the mail concern a frown—
That's the game!

If you're used to giving knocks,
Change your style!
Throw bouquets instead of rocks
For awhile.
Let the other fellow roast;
Shun him as you would a ghost;
Meet his hammer with a boast
And smile.

When a stranger from afar
Comes along,
Tell him who and what we are—
Make it strong.
Needn't flatter, never bluff;
Tell the truth, for that's enough.
Join the boosters—they're the stuff.

Make up your mind that no work is so well done but that it can be done better. Therein lies the first element of future greatness.

Health for Sick Women

For Forty Years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Has Been Woman's Most Reliable Medicine —Here is More Proof.

To women who are suffering from some form of woman's special ills, and have a constant fear of breaking down, the three following letters ought to bring hope:—

North Crandon, Wis.—"When I was 16 years old I got married and at 18 years I gave birth to twins and it left me with very poor health. I could not walk across the floor without having to sit down to rest and it was hard for me to keep about and do my work. I went to a doctor and he told me I had a displacement and ulcers, and would have to have an operation. This frightened me so much that I did not know what to do. Having heard of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I thought I would give it a trial and it made me as well as ever. I cannot say enough in favor of the Pinkham remedies."—Mrs. Mayme Asbach, North Crandon, Wis.

Testimony from Oklahoma.

Lawton, Okla.—"When I began to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I seemed to be good for nothing. I tired easily and had headaches much of the time and was irregular. I took it again before my little child was born and it did me a wonderful amount of good at that time. I never fail to recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to ailing women because it has done so much for me."—Mrs. A. L. McCasland, 509 Have St., Lawton, Okla.

From a Grateful Massachusetts Woman.

Roxbury, Mass.—"I was suffering from inflammation and was examined by a physician who found that my trouble was caused by a displacement. My symptoms were bearing down pains, backache, and sluggish liver. I tried several kinds of medicine; then I was asked to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It has cured me and I am pleased to be in my usual good health by using it and highly recommend it."—Mrs. B. M. Osgood, 1 Haynes Park, Roxbury, Mass.

Almost Black

Rubber in its natural state is almost black. Red Rubber, Yellow rubber and many other colors are weakened by coloring. White rubber is also weakened by bleaching. The rubber that goes into the Ball Band rubbers comes direct from South America, in its natural state. Therefore, when we say to you that the dark colored Ball Band rubber will outwear any rubber that it is possible for us to sell you, we do so with all the sincerity that is possible. We have in stock many styles of Ball Band rubbers and suggest that if you have never tried a pair that you call and look them over. Better still we suggest that you buy a pair of them and if they do not give perfect satisfaction, return them to us. We stand back of them.

WEST FRYEBURG

Mrs. Elmer Walker is seriously ill at her home here and a physician from Fryeburg is in attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Andrews of the East Conway street are enjoying a winter vacation at the home of their son and daughter in Providence, R. I. Harold Andrews has opened a law office in that city after graduating from the Harvard law school and his sister, Annie M. Andrews is a successful dressmaker there. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Andrews of Kearsarge are occupying the parental home during the absence of their parents.

William Robbins and. son, Cleveland, are assisting Byron Hutchins, cutting the pine timber on his place.

Mrs. James H. Hardy, who has been recently ill with grippe and complications, is on the mending hand.

Mrs. Alice Walker, whose death was noticed in the Fryeburg news column last week, was a valued resident of this section and her death is a personal loss to the neighborhood as well as to the many closer relationships of her position. She will be greatly missed by many who were priviledged to have her acquaintance and friendship.

By the death of the late Wm. Durgin of Fryeburg, Asa Charles, West Fryeburg's oldest citizen becomes the candidate for the possession of the gold headed cane awarded to the oldest townsman by the generosity of the Boston Post. There were other near candidates, there being three aspirants, so to speak, born in the same year of 1829. They were the first named, Asa Charles, born in the merry month of May, John Eastman in October and David Hill, who holds a birthday in December. We learn there has been quite a little breeze about the matter, but we all heartily wish Uncle Asa a long time in which to enjoy his honors.

Charles H. Andrews and family are to remove to Fryeburg village soon. Mr. Andrews has an automobile business there and his daughter, Ethel is a freshman in Fryeburg Academy. We shall miss them but wish them well in their new home.

A rumor is a float that we are to have electric lights in this section in the spring. Let us hope it is not like the rumors aforetime going about of electric cars and others that have come to nought.

It is pleasant to hear the clatter of the machinery of Lloyd Stevens' mill, early and late and the man who is not at work in this busy time here can't be found.

A POUND OF HONEY.

When you eat a spoonful of honey you have very little idea as to the amount of work and travel necessary to produce it. To make a pound of clover honey, bees must take the nectar from sixty-two thousand clover blossoms and to do this requires two million, seven hundred and fifty thousand visits to the blossoms by the bees.

In other words, in order to collect enough nectar to make one pound of honey a bee must go from hive to flower and back again two million seven hundred and fifty thousand times. Then, when you think how far these bees sometimes fly in search of these clover fields, often one or two miles distant from the hive, you will begin to get a good idea of the number of miles one of the industrious little creatures must travel in order that you may have a pound of honey.

OXFORD

Carr-Benecke.

The Carr-Benecke wedding at State street church, Portland, Saturday, at 4 in the afternoon was one of the most brilliant functions of the season and was attended by all the young fashionable set in town.

The stately interior of the church which was massed with green and Easter lilies were used very effectively. The beautiful white flowers were spring like in appearance and made a lovely background for the bride and her maids.

As the strains of the Lohengrin Wedding March were heard, the wedding party proceeded down the left aisle in the following order: George F. Cressey and Roger Vinton Snow led the procession with Leland G. Means and Henry H. Hay following. Then came the bridesmaids, Miss Alberta Robinson with Miss Mildred Mutchmore and Miss Sally Kimball with Miss Eleanor Thompson. They were beautifully gowned in golden yellow. The skirts were of gold colored tulle over teffeta of the same shade. Their bodices were of gold cloth and the slippers were also gold. Their picture hats were of gold lace trimmed with a spray of black paradise and edged with black tulle. The carried large bouquets of yellow marguerites and maidenhair fern tied with large tulle bows.

The maid of honor, Miss Lydia MacDonald Cook, came next, and she was charmingly quaint in a poke bonnet and old-fashioned figured gown. The material of the bodice and bonnet was the same delicate blue with touches of yellow, while the narrow black streamers from the hat hung over her shoulder most gracefully.

The skirt was of tulle shading from white to deep orange over orange taffeta and her slippers were of gold cloth. Her bouquet was of yellow roses dotted with blue forget-me-nots.

Lastly came the bride, Miss Lina Carr, whose brunette beauty was set off to advantage by a beautiful white satin gown fashioned with a short full skirt and trimmed with silver brocade. A band of silver edged the skirt which was caught up here and there with orange blossoms. A court train was fastened at the shoulders in points and veiled with tulle, which was fashioned in cap shape and held in place with a silver band about her forehead. She carried a large shower bouquet of valley lilies which she later threw to her girl friends. Her only piece of jewelry was a beautiful pin of platinum and diamonds which was a gift of the bridegroom.

At the altar the bride was met by the bridegroom, Alex Benecke, of New York with the best man, Kurt Huttlinger. Dr. Ashley D. Leavitt performed the double ring service in a most impressive manner. When the music changed to Mendelssohn's Wedding March the bride and bridegroom marched out of the church by the right aisle. Then came Miss Cook and Mr. Huttlinger, Miss Mutchmore and Mr. Snow, Miss Robinson and Mr. Cressey, Miss Kimball and Mr. Means and Miss Thompson and Mr. Hay.

Immediately after the ceremony the bridal party and a few relatives and friends of Mr. and Mrs. Benecke went to the Columbia Hotel where the reception was held. The guests were received in the parlor on the second floor and those in the receiving line were Mr. and Mrs. Benecke and Mrs. Thomas Carr, the mother of the bride. Mrs. Carr was gowned in royal purple satin trimmed with silver lace. Pink Killarney roses and greens formed the decorations and dancing was enjoyed by those present. Delicious refreshments were served and the young people danced until the bride and bridegroom left on their honeymoon. Mrs. Benecke's going away costume was a blue traveling suit with hat to match.

Mrs. Benecke is a graduate of the Portland High School, Dana Hall and Wellesley College.

Mr. Benecke is a New York man and is the president of the Krefeld Steel Company. The young people will make their home in New York City.

FEBRUARY.

February, the month of expiation (from februum, an expiation), the second month in the year has ordinarily 28 days, but this year as leap year has an additional or intercalary day, making 29 days. Among the Romans, it had originally 29 days in an ordinary year, but when the Senate decreed that the eighth month should bear the name of Augustus, a day was taken from February and given to August which had then only 30 days, that it might not be inferior to July.

The name is derived from the fact that during the month occurred the Roman festival called the Lupercalia, and also Februalia, from februare to purify.

The legal holidays in February include Lincoln's birthday, February 12, in Connecticut, Deleware, Illinois, Minnesota, New Jersey, New York, North Dakota Pennsylvania, Washington (state), and Wyoming; Washington's birthday in all the states except Mississippi.

St. Valentine's Day, February 14, although not a legal holiday, does not pass without observance and Longfellow's birthday, February 27, is observed by exercises in the public schools.

The amethyst is the birthstone for February.

State Ornithologist, E. W. Forbush of Massachusetts has issued a 112 page bulletin on the Domestic Cat for the Department of Agriculture of that state. It is illustrated and contains the names of a hundred or more contributors and withall is a very interesting book. If you would like a copy send request to Wilfred Wheeler, secretary, Mass. State Board of Agriculture, 136 State street, Boston, Mass., and it will be forwarded to you without expense. It is well worth reading.

The Nursing Baby.

The best way to ascertain whether the baby is having enough food or not is to weigh it immediately before and after nursing. The difference in weight represents the amount of nourishment the child has obtained. During the first month the gain after nursing should be from two to four ounces—the second and third month from three to five ounces. After the third month, from four to seven ounces, according to age.

If the baby nurses ravenously for a few moments, then stops and cries, or does just the opposite, insists upon nursing for a long time, sometimes for an hour or more, and then cries when taken away, or if a baby sucks its fingers constantly, between meals, does not gain in weight, cries and frets a great deal, and does not sleep well, it is safe to assume that the nourishment is insufficient.—Marianna Wheeler, in The People's Home Journal for February.

Mr. Demers is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Demers of Rumford. The young people will make their home in Rumford for the present.

The subject of next Sunday's Christian Science Lesson Sermon will be "Spirit," and the Golden Text is from Romans, 8: 11.

One who has never visited the Pine Tree State, may ask, what is there about Maine that so charms and delights the tourist? Were we to answer in one word it would be—Diversity. We soon tire of gazing steadily at any object, however grand. The eye and the senses require frequent changes in order to hold our attention. Variety in scenery as in food is what is required.

A. L. Clark has purchased a Dodge car of Ripley & Fletcher.

Mrs. A. D. Parmenter, who was to have had an auction to sell her household goods, was called suddenly to her home in Massachusetts on account of her brother falling down an elevator well, the illness of her father, A. C. Lord, and the sickness of other members of the family. The auction will not be held on the date advertised. The stock of jewelry of A. C. Lord has been sold to Harry A. Packard and moved to the Nevers store.

Norman A. Crommett of Doyleston, Pennsylvania, formerly of Norway, writes us that he has left the Midvale Steel Co., where he has been employed in the Engineering Department for six years, and for the past two years has been in charge of the repairs and collaborations of all meters for measuring oil, water, gas and electricity, also all recording instruments and pressure guages through all the works. Mr. Crommett in company with E. J. Boucher of Auburn made a three weeks' trip through Florida, visiting all the towns of any size on both the east and west coast. They have decided to open a place at Lake Worth, six miles south of Palm Beach and have built a three story building which they will use in the taxidermy business, of which they intend to carry a full line, and a line of sporting goods as he reports the fishing and bird shooting very good.

Mrs. Geo. T. Tubbs spent the week-end in Norway, but was recalled to Portland Monday because of the serious condition of Mrs. D. W. Fellows, who was at the hospital in the city. Mrs. Tubbs had been with Mrs. Fellows several weeks before she went to the hospital.

NORWAY HIGH SCHOOL BUILDING.

Some twenty-two years ago the Norway High School buildings, together with the building that served as a gymnasium, were burned. In their place the above buildings were erected. A new gymnasium, however, was not erected, due, no doubt, to the difficult situation in which the town found itself.

That situation has been met, and the young men and women, the graduates of this school, who during their own school life experienced the disadvantage of being cooped up with some four or five hundred others in a building of this size, with no chance during the winter months for relaxation or exercise, began several years ago the accumulation of a fund for the erection of a new and commodious gymnasium.

In this effort they have been materially assisted by the principal, Mr. Hathaway, and the students.

Today these funds have reached such a mark, and the condition and prospects of the town are such as to warrant the Alumni Association, which has charge of these funds, in asking the voters of the town to vote the additional amount necessary so that the building can be erected the coming summer. The committee having the matter in charge have asked the undersigned to state the case through the Advertiser.

The editor has very kindly granted the space and in succeeding issues I shall discuss briefly why the school needs a gym, what kind of a building is proposed, what can be done with one and finally the proposition which the Alumni Association will put up to the voters at the coming town meeting.

PORTLAND AUTO SHOW.

Upon Monday, Feb. 21, when the doors of the mammoth new Exposition Building, at Portland, are thrown open, more than a quarter of a million dollars worth of pleasure cars and trucks will be on exhibition. The two floors of this new building have entirely been contracted for. The first floor will be given over entirely to the display of pleasure cars, while in the basement, trucks, motor cycles, and accessories will be another complete show in itself.

The Portland Automobile Dealers' Association have gained by past experience to know just what patrons of such exhibitions desire, and every whim of the motorist will be fulfilled. This year's attractions will far exceed anything ever before attempted in this State.

The decorative scheme for the first floor will be in green and white, and with its thousands of roses, electric lights and southern smilax it will be transformed into a real fairyland. In the center of the hall, a beautiful stand will be erected, from which concerts will be rendered afternoons and evenings. The contract has just been closed with the Bostonia Ladies' Orchestra of twenty pieces, which guarantees that this feature of the exposition will be of the highest grade.

A great deal of interest is being shown throughout the entire State by dealers and motor enthusiasts, and in some of the cities parties are being formed to attend the Show in a body. Arrangements have been made for special railroad rates to Portland during the show week, Feb. 21 to 26.

The Minister who Feels Well on Monday

With many ministers, Monday is an "off day." Not in the way of doing nothing, but in the sense of not feeling well. After the hard work of Saturday and Sunday, comes the nervous and physical reaction of Monday, with that "all-in" feeling. This is a condition many ministers would be glad to be freed from. They can avoid it by giving proper attention to diet, and taking "L. F." Atwood's Medicine to keep the bowels in order, the stomach toned, the liver regulated, and the head clear. This old home remedy is so good that many ministers are glad to recommend it, feeling that they are passing along a kindness in so doing. We will send a free sample to any minister, upon request.

Buy a 35c bottle at your nearest store, or write to-day for free sample.

The service was finely rendered by Mrs. Jillson, and the Chapter begins another year under auspicious circumstances.

Rev. William Laite will hold a Union Service at his church at Spurr's Corner, next Sabbath, the congregation from Bolster's Mills joining the Otisfield people at that place. It will be an old-fashioned service, two sessions and a basket lunch between the two. The subject of Mr. Laite's sermon will be: "Are our boys and girls getting their just due, physically, morally and spiritually?" There will be fine music, as always at this church, and it is hoped the day may be one of spiritual uplitt and profit.

SEVERE RHEUMATIC PAINS DISAPPEAR

Rheumatism depends on an acid which flows in the blood, affecting the muscles and joints, producing inflammation, stiffness and pain. This acid gets into the blood through some defect in the digestive processes, and remains there because the liver, kidneys and skin are too torpid to carry it off.

Hood's Sarsaparilla, the old-time blood tonic, is very successful in the treatment of rheumatism. It acts directly, with purifying effect, on the blood, and through the blood on the liver, kidneys anl skin, which it stimulates, and at the same time it improves the digestion.

Get Hood's Sarsaparilla today. Sold by all druggists.

WEST PARIS.

Thirty-eight from West Paris Grange attended Pomona at Bryant's Pond, Tuesday and spent a very profitable and happy day.

The Union temperance meeting Sunday evening was largely attended, nor were the people disappointed. State President of the W. C. T. U., Mrs. Althea G. Quimby of North Turner gave a very helpful and instructive address. Rev. D. A. Ball and Rev. Sarah A. Robinson. A chorus of children from the intermediate grade at school with their teacher, Miss Carter, sweetly sang a little temperance song. There was also congregational singing.

The recent warm spell has taken away nearly all our snow which was little enough at the most. Wagons and automobiles were put into service. It snowed Wednesday.

Post card showers have been sent to three other Grange sisters who were sick. Mrs. A. J. Abbott, Mrs. L. B. Turpel and Mrs. F. L. Wyman, receiving from thirty to sixty cards each and all felt grateful and cheered with these little remembrances from their friends. A card is only a small thing to the individual giver but means a whole lot to the sick and shut in. Mrs. Wyman also received another post card shower a week or so later from her friends in the Ladies Relief Corp at Sumner of which she is a member.

The following pupils of West Paris primary school were not absent one-half day during the month of January: Inez Briggs, Mae Briggs, Harold Buck, Gerald Day, Martha Day, Edith Emery, Gerry Emery, Persis Mann, Doris Marston, Albert Martin, Donald Penley, Robert Penley, Arline Porter, Edna Richardson, Velma Shaw, Minnie Swift, Margaret Tuell, Elmer Waterhouse, Lawrence Whitman, Nelson Whitman, George Flavin.
